Part 3: Short Passage Question (10%)

While less well-known than Tokyo, Osaka, or Kyoto, Fukuoka is one of Japan's most welcoming cities. Once overlooked in favor of these larger cities, Kyushu's biggest urban center has quietly become a favorite destination for travelers, offering a mix of history, culture, and delicious local food.

Visitors can explore the Fukuoka Castle ruins in Maizuru Park to get a glimpse of Japan's past. In late March, the park is covered with shades of pink when the cherry blossoms bloom. At night, colorful lights fill the park, making the cherry blossom season feel even more magical. Fukuoka is also famous for its food. The city is the birthplace of tonkotsu ramen, a rich pork-bone broth served with green onions and garlic oil. Locals call it Hakata ramen, and it is best enjoyed at one of the many open-air food stalls, or yatai. Other popular local dishes include mizutaki, a tasty chicken hot pot, and mentaiko, spicy pollock roe often eaten with rice. These dishes give visitors a real taste of Fukuoka's food culture.

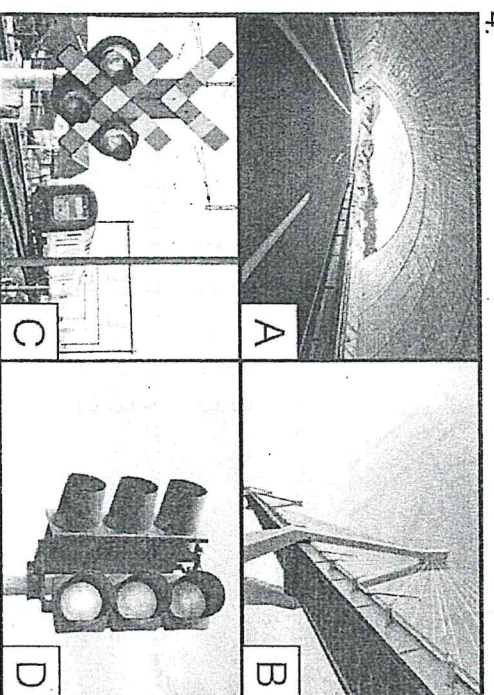

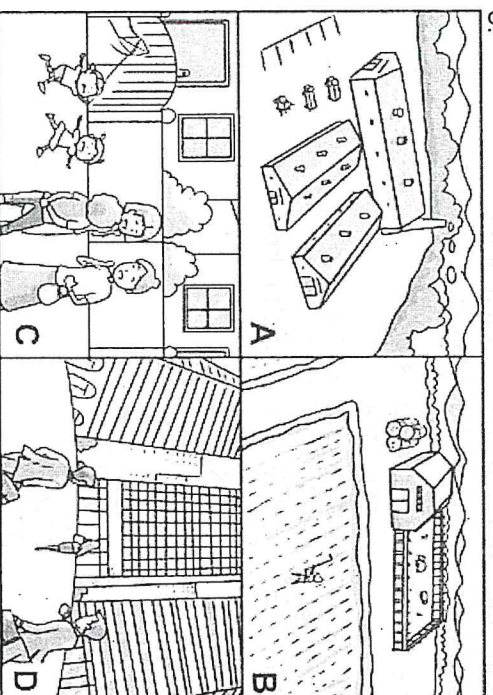

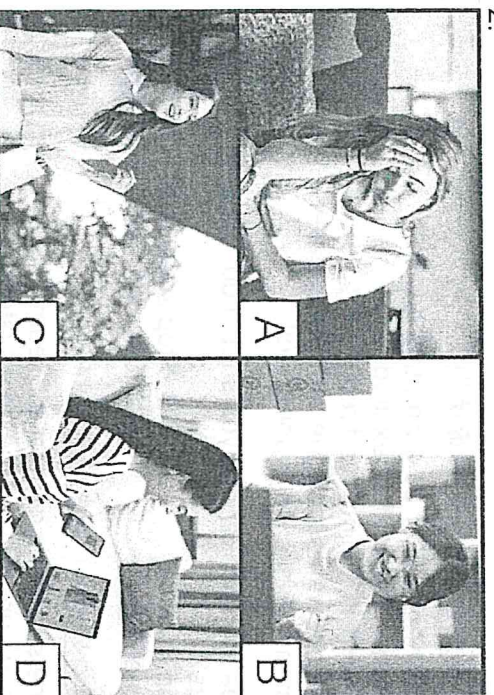

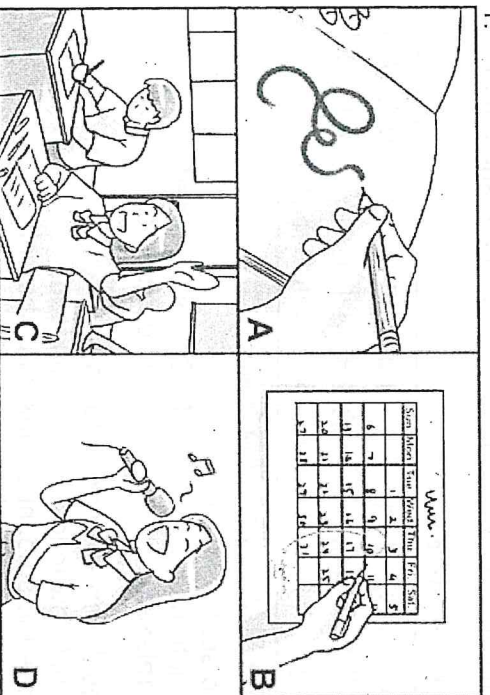

- () 46. Why is Tokyo mentioned at the beginning of the passage?
 (A) To show that Fukuoka also has a large population.
 (B) To suggest that Fukuoka is even busier than the capital city.
 (C) To explain how to travel from Tokyo to Fukuoka.
 (D) To compare Fukuoka with a more well-known Japanese city.

III. Reading Comprehension 閱讀理解 - 6%

Read the paragraphs. Then answer the questions.

A few kind words can brighten anyone's day. March 1 is World Compliment Day, a time to celebrate the power of saying something nice. Though compliments may appear simple, they can make a strong difference in how people feel. Giving or receiving kind words helps improve mood, increases confidence, and builds stronger relationships.

One meaningful example comes from Ethan Wargo, a young boy who set up a stand in his neighborhood. Instead of selling drinks or snacks, he offered free compliments. Ethan greeted each visitor with a friendly smile and gave a sincere message that reflected something special about that person. His kindness soon attracted many people who stopped by to hear his encouraging words. "When I make others feel good, I feel good too," Ethan said with a grin.

Compliments remind us of our worth and connect us through kindness. They show that small gestures can have a big impact. Even though World Compliment Day happens once a year, every day is a good day to share a thoughtful word and make someone feel seen, valued, and appreciated.

_____ 61. What is one effect of giving a compliment?

- A. It makes someone understand your feelings.
- B. It makes someone feel better.
- C. It makes others like your social media posts.
- D. It makes others think of you more often.

_____ 62. Why did Ethan make a compliment stand?

- A. He wanted to make someone else feel good.
- B. He was bored and had nothing else to do.
- C. He enjoyed making money at home.
- D. He wanted to see his neighbors more often.

_____ 63. What is the main message of this text?

- A. Being kind is better than being right.
- B. Doing something is better than doing nothing.
- C. Being loving will get you far in life.
- D. A few kind words can make a big difference.

_____ 64. According to the text, what happened after Ethan set up his stand?

- A. He started selling healthy snacks and drinks.
- B. He invited his neighbors to help him work.
- C. Many people came to listen to his kind words.
- D. He decided to move the stand to another city.
